

Permission to use work

Concluded between

ekey biometric systems GmbH, Lunzerstraße 89, 4030 Linz, Austria, (hereinafter referred to as "ekey") and

.....
hereinafter referred to as the "Customer."

For the duration of the business relationship, ekey grants the Customer the non-exclusive right to use their image and text material in electronic or printed form free of charge for the purpose of presenting their own company (e.g. on the Internet, for advertising, marketing, and sales).

Upon termination of the business relationship, the Customer's permission to use the work ends, provided that the Parties do not expressly agree otherwise. Insofar as at the time of termination of the business relationship the Customer has already initiated measures for the purpose of presenting the company, these must be terminated immediately.

The Customer is not entitled to grant third parties permission to use the image and text material of any kind, in particular for duplication or making it available. Written consent must be obtained from ekey in advance.

When using images, the following photo credit must be mentioned in the publication: © ekey biometric systems.

ekey expressly warrants that it is entitled to provide the image and text material and releases the Customer from all third-party claims that are asserted due to an infringement.

.....
Place, date

.....
Customer's signature

.....
Place, date

.....
ekey biometric systems GmbH